Subject: New Continuing Education Course

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to confirm that

Héctor Olvera Padilla

Has been certified by SiteSell Education to Teach a Brand new continuing education course called

"Building A Successful Business Using The Internet."

This certification is not given lightly. In the course, students learn how to build a successful business by actually doing it in class. This concept needs instructors, such as Hector, who are already successful online entrepreneurs themselves.

Hector will be happy to give you all the information you need to add this course to your continuing education curriculum.

You'll quickly see how it allows you to further expand your reach and positively impact the community you serve.

Should you need to contact me for any reason, you can reach me by email at dcoggan@sitesell.com or by phone at 518-503-0717 or at 888-826-2382 toll-free within North America.

Sincerely,
